BRITISH PARLIAMENT IS CALLED TOGETHER

REWARD OFFERED BY GOVERNOR FOR PERSONS SHOOTING NON-UNION MINERS

Many Reports on the Situation Are Received by Governor Kilby
Kilby
No Requests for Use of State Guards Have Been Received
(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily)
MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 2.—Governor Kilby issued a proclamation Friday afternoon offering a reward of $400 for the arrest and conviction of any person who participated in the attack on non-union miners at Wylam Monday which resulted in the wounding of John Whitfield and Arthur Dawson while they returned from their work in the mines.
Governor Kilby gave no further consideration during the day of the latest developments of the strike. However, it is known that he has received many reports on the situation and that he has the means of obtaining information throughout each day. He was asked again Friday if there was a probability of the national guard or the state constabulary being returned to the coal district, but declined to answer saying it was the purpose of the state to take whatever action is necessary.
The Governor has not received any request from any source for the use of the guard or constabulary in the preservation of order.

Evidence Submitted.
The St. Louis and San Francisco railroad submitted evidence before the Public Service Commission Friday in support of its present rates for transportation of iron ore, coal, coke and limestone to furnaces of the Birmingham district. A mass of exhibits were submitted with explanations showing the difficulties faced by the railroad in handling this traffic.
Three witnesses were examined during the day, E. H. Mohler, superintendent of terminals; F. C. Gow, assistant superintendent, and H. E. Morris, assistant general freight agent. It is apparent that the case will go into next week and that the hearing will be postponed until the completion of the regular April docket which will be taken up Monday. It is probable the hearing will be resumed Wednesday or Thursday.

The Spring Poet.
Official Montgomery celebrated April Fool's Day Friday. When members of the state tax commission reached their offices during the early morning, they found in their mail the following poem:
"His horse went dead and his mule went lame,
"And he lost his cow in a poker game,
"And a cyclone came on a winter's day,
"And blew the house where he lived away.
"Then an earthquake came and when that was done
"It swallowed the ground his house was on,
"Then the tax adjuster came around
"And raised the value of the hole in the ground."

Another Pest.
Another pest has reached Alabama to pester the farmers, according to information received by the state agricultural department today from J. W. Newborn of Ozark, who submitted a peculiar specimen of insect which resembled a large boll weevil. Mr. Newborn said this pest had attacked his potato crop, entering the bud and causing the plant to wilt as if it had been stricken by frost.
One specimen was sent to Dr. W. E. Hinds, state entomologist, with the request that the pest be identified and a report made.
Bank Charter Issued.
Announcement was made by the state banking department today that

FIELD DAY PROGRAM IS MOST SUCCESSFUL

Tired as a result of the strenuous day, but happy over its success, 3,000 Morgan County school children awoke this morning and viewed in retrospect the most successful field day program in the history of the schools. The program was rendered here Friday before a large crowd.
The final march of the thousands of students and teachers, was made from Decatur to Albany near the noon hour. As the different contingents reached Wheeler Park, the line of march was broken up, and children and grownups, spread out over the Episcopal church lawn, over the Y. M. C. A. lawn, and down toward the baseball park, where lunches were soon to be served by different school units.
In order to insure the completion of the long program before dark the health pageant, was staged on the "Y" lawn before lunch time.
After a brief time for refreshments Chairman Cowart, Secretary W. W. Benson, W. J. Samford, J. D. Garren and J. C. Dixon, of the Executive committee and Miss Annie Elizabeth Newman, and Miss Williams called the large majority of the school children to the ball park, for the athletic contests, which lasted, amid great enthusiasm, until 5 o'clock.
A minority company of students marched to the Albany High School, and to the Gordon school. There under the direction of Mrs. Kimball B. Jones, Mrs. Vest, Miss Mary Banks, Miss Lillian Odom, Miss Lillian Bardsdale, Mrs. Lloyd Knight, J. H. Riddle and others the contest in declamation, mathematics, reading, music spelling, and other contests were held.
The greatest enthusiasm of the entire day was aroused when the 100 yard, 75 yard and 40 yard races were "called" by the crack of a blank cartridge pistol. As the "big" boys crouched low, awaiting the signal, there was a solemn stillness of expectancy, and when they made their wild dashes for victory, every eye of the thousands gathered followed the runners until one of the company passed the line of triumph.
Although, there were a large number of these foot races, in which large girls and boys, small boys and girls and smaller boys and girls raced for the prize, the enthusiastic good humored crowd tired not a single moment. The acrobatic feats, were such as would have done credit to any Barnum and Bailey show people; while the "chinning" of the gymnastic pole, by both boys and girls evidenced great vitality on the part of the contestants.
The following is the unofficial prize list, which is subject to check:
School highest percentage attendance Morgan Co., High, 1st prize Trinity 2nd prize.
School Best Pageant in Parade, Decatur, 1st; Morgan County high 2nd.
School with highest number of points announced later.
Individual with highest of number of points announced later.
Declamation, Reading and Music
Piano solo: E. Rosenberg, Decatur, first; Louise Echols, Hartselle city schools, second.

a charter had been issued to the South Baldwin State Bank of Foley, Baldwin county, which will begin business with a paid in capital of $15,000. W. F. Hilcher will be the first president and A. H. Hazeldon the first cashier.
Inspector Named.
B. F. Porter, of Tusculum, has been appointed license inspector for the counties of Marion, Winston, Lamar and Fayette by the state tax commission. This position was created through the re-grouping of the license inspection districts of Alabama and does not replace any inspector.
Equipment Received
Two motor ambulances and two motor field kitchens were received by the state military department from the war department today for use in field operations of the Alabama National Guard. They were a part of the equipment assigned to this state and were stored with other military property at Camp Sheridan.

HARRIS SPEAKS AT WILLOUGHBY CHURCH SUNDAY

Dr. John Royal Harris, whose likeness appeared in yesterday's Daily with announcement that he would speak to the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations of Decatur in the First Methodist church, has another appointment in the Twin Cities for Sunday.
At 2:30 Sunday afternoon Dr. Harris will deliver his well known lecture against "Bolshevism" at the Willoughby Presbyterian church of South Albany, according to announcement of F. T. Lewis, Chairman of the Board of Deacons of that church.
Mr. Lewis said that a cordial invitation was extended to both men and women to hear Dr. Harris.

CHARLES WATCHED WITHOUT INTEREST BY ALLIES TODAY

(International News Service)
Paris, April 2.—Charles, of Hapsburg, once more a "king without a country," having failed utterly in his spectacular attempt to reestablish himself on the throne of Hungary was still the center of interest in Europe today, but his movements were no longer watched with alarm, for all danger of any considerable part of his former subjects recognizing him as their ruler seemed past.
Dispatches early today had it that he was returning to Switzerland, despite reports that the little mountain republic's government considers he has forfeited the right to its hospitality.
A Budapest correspondent telegraphed that the ex-monarch, accompanied by two British officers, has left Szombathely, and is heading for Switzerland.
He has not signed the act of abdication, however, the dispatch said.

ROAD EMPLOYEES WIN BIG VICTORY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 2.—Fifteen hundred employees of the signal department of the New York Central railroad, won an important victory today when after a lively debate between representatives of both sides, the management yielded to the employees' demand to submit the question of a reduction of wages to the railroad labor board.
The management continued to hold in abeyance a contemplated wage cut until the board has rendered a decision. The agreement will ultimately affect 15,000 men and is expected to have a far reaching influence upon the plans now under formulation by the Pennsylvania and other roads.
Red Pamphlets Are Distributed
WHEELING, WEST VA., April 2.—Thousands of pamphlets, advocating the overthrow of the American government and the establishment of a Soviet regime in the United States were distributed in this city today before the police were aware that red agents were at work in this district.
The printing was in foreign and the English languages. The pamphlets were passed out wholesale at factories and other industries at the noon hour.
PASTORS TO MEET.
The Morgan County Pastors Union will meet at the Y. M. C. A. Monday at 10:30.

PROTECTION OF KEY INDUSTRIES IS BRITISH PLAN

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—The British government issued formal proposals to parliament for the protection of British key industries and the prevention of dumping, American consul Skinner, at London, today cabled the Department of Commerce.
The plans contemplate a customs duty of 33 1-3 per cent ad valorem on articles produced by key industries, Consul Skinner said.
Among the chief industries for which protection is sought are those manufacturing scientific instruments, optical glass, hosiery, magnetos, meters, metallic tungsten, synthetic organic chemicals, except dye stuffs, and all other fine chemicals.

TYSON REPLIES TO SENATOR PENROSE ON NEGRO'S PLACE

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Equal privileges in hotels, cafes, restaurants, educational institutions and amusements for negroes with the whites as advocated recently by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, has drawn protest from the Southern congressmen.
Representative Tyson, of Alabama, former chief justice of the Alabama supreme court, issued a statement today saying: "Proprietors of hotels, cafes, restaurants and amusement places, have property rights which are protected by, not only the constitutions of the several states, but by the constitution of the United States. To deny to them the right to exclude such persons as may be offensive to their patrons to the end of impairing their business, is a denial to them of property rights secured by the several constitutions."
"Senator Penrose's proposition defeats the order of divine providence and is an attempt to legislate to compel the inter-mixture of races, widely separated, which will result in the destruction of a high standard of moral, religious and educational conditions as they now exist."
"Social equality cannot be enforced and maintained by legislative enactment."
"For Senator Penrose to state that he does not stand for social equality in face of the fact that he advocates establishing conditions by penal statutes enforcing the intermingling of races, bringing about a contact necessarily promotive of social assertions and therefore equality is, with due respect, an absurdity."

HARDING PLEDGES HIS SUPPORT TO FARMER'S RELIEF

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Harding was today urged to give his personal support and influence to efforts by the government to secure relief for the cotton growers of the South.
The President received a delegation of cotton growers, headed by former Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia and former Senator Bulter, of North Carolina.
It is understood that the President assured the delegation of his interest in the matter and of his intention to support every step taken to afford the cotton growers relief.

NEW REVENUE BILLS ARE AGREED UPON IN CONFERENCE SMOOT ANNOUNCES TODAY

Tentative Draft of Measures Received by Secretary of Treasury Mellon
EXCESS PROFITS TAX WILL GO TO DISCARD
War Tax on Ice Cream Cones Will be Dropped Also
By HARRY L. ROGERS (International News Service Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—New revenue legislation, designed to keep the government's tax income up to $4,000,000,000, began to take definite shape today when Secretary of the Treasury Mellon received from Senate leaders a tentative draft of a tax revision measure.
After a conference upon the proposed tax changes with Secretary Mellon, the main features of the proposed program were outlined by Senator Smoot, of the Senate finance committee, to include the following:
Imposition of a straight sales tax on one half of one per cent of practically all sales by manufacturers and merchants; repeal of the excess profits tax, and a scaling down of the high sur-taxes to a 32 per cent bracket.
Senator Smoot asserted that the proposal for a sales tax of one half of one per cent will raise for the treasury $1,250,000,000 and possibly in excess of that figure.
The aim of Senator leaders, Senator Smoot said, is to readjust the tax laws so that the wealthy will not find it possible to escape liability to the government by assessing their funds in tax-exempt securities.
General agreement was said to exist after the conference that the excess profits tax be repealed, but that taxes upon groups of so-called luxuries must be repealed.
"The huge mistake of attempting to raise government funds by taxing ice cream cones that the children buy must be remedied at once," said Senator Smoot.
"No change in the normal income tax rates on the small incomes is contemplated, it was declared, nor is any revision to be made on the rates on sur-taxes on incomes above $5,000 a year.

BRITISH JOURNALIST VISITS BIRMINGHAM

(International News Service)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 2.—Sir Harry Robinson, noted English journalist and representative of The London Times is in Birmingham for a few days gathering data for the "American edition" of the English paper.
"If the world is ever to get on its feet again after the chaos wrought by the world war and civilization in Europe survives, it will be by the combined efforts of the United States and England," Sir Harry said in discussing relations of the two English speaking countries today.
The London Times, each Fourth of July since 1919, has published an American edition of its paper to more closely unite the great English speaking countries, he explained. He is here gathering data on the Birmingham district and the South for the 1921 edition.

A temporary naval recruiting station which will be open Friday of each week until arrangements are made for the opening of a regular station to serve North Alabama, was opened yesterday at the Albany post-office. The station will be in charge of Chief Yeoman A. B. Crull of Birmingham. Mr. Crull requests all who are thinking of entering the navy to see him any Friday at the postoffice.

BRAND NEGRO ON FOREHEAD WITH "K. K. K."

(International News Service)
DALLAS, Tex., April 2.—This city is quiet today after a night of rioting in which members of the reorganized Ku Klux Klan participated. Shortly before midnight Friday, 15 masked and robed members of their organization seized Alex Johnson, negro, from his home and carried him to a segregated spot in the suburbs of the city.
The members gave the negro a short trial. He confessed to improper relations with a white woman. The Klan then blindfolded the negro, while he made entreaties for his life to be spared. The negro was stripped and lashed severely 25 times. After the negro had been lashed and beaten until he could not stand, the letters "K. K. K." were branded on his forehead.

MORGAN COUNTY'S BOYS TO BE SEEN IN BATTLE VIEWS

Five hundred thousand American boys in battle.
That is what the people of Morgan county have an opportunity to see, with their own eyes in the presentation on the Princess screen of the greatest single film attraction the city has ever known, the official United States Army films of the battle of St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne.
This tremendous attraction, showing the action of the American boys, including Morgan County boys, as well as thousands of others, engaged in actual battle with the German hordes, comes as something which no American should miss, a film which tells as no other picture ever told it—the story of the great American drives.
Nothing is covered over in this official film. It is the government's own record of the great battles, and is told in gripping, stirring pictures of the actual scenes on the American fronts. Every phase of battle is shown, every phase of the American doughboy's life in France.
Coming with the picture, is Corporal R. H. Ingleson, as lecturer. Ingleson was a division photographer of the 42nd Rainbow division. Afterwards transferred to the first army and made a "free lance" making pictures wherever he saw fit, and he has seen things which no other man had a chance to see during the never-to-be-forgotten war "over there."
Corporal Ingleson, when interrogated concerning the pictures of which he had charge, had the following to say: "I know there have been numerous pictures, both moving and still, shown to the public. These pictures are usually advertised as being official, but the fact of the matter is, that, by a general order issued from general headquarters A. E. F., no other person was in position to get the official pictures."
The film will be shown here Monday and Tuesday under the auspices of the American Legion for the benefit of the Legion's home building fund.

BRITAIN TREMBLES ON BRINK OF GREAT UPHEAVAL AS MINE STRIKE CONTINUES

Situation is Declared Gravest Since Declaration of War in 1914
MANY MINES FLOODED AND RUINED FOREVER
Nation-Wide Call is Issued for Volunteers to Man the Pumps
(International News Service)
LONDON, April 2.—Through the United Kingdom trembled upon the brink of a tremendous industrial upheaval which is considered inevitable if the nation-wide coal strike lasts, the general public displayed remarkable calm on the second day of the tie-up which saw practically all of the 1,200,000 miners of England idle.
King George has called parliament to convene Monday, 8 days sooner than the date originally set, because "a state of emergency exists."
The government's official declaration, however, declared the situation as the gravest since the declaration of war in 1914 and a special cabinet committee had been appointed to deal with the crisis.
As in previous coal strikes the all overwhelming fear of the government is that the two other parties to the "triple alliance," the railroad men and the transport workers, may join the miners.
Thousands of dock workers employed in handling coal have already walked out.
The main concern is to get sufficient men to man the pumps at the mines, a difficult problem owing to the strong picketing by strikers.
Six big mines are already flooded so that they can never be put into operation again. Thirty others have applied to the government for help in pumping to prevent flooding.
A nation-wide call has been issued for volunteers to assist in pumping at the mines. Meanwhile the usual stringent measures of restriction and economy have been ordered by the government. Rationing of coal for households has been resumed and train service has been greatly reduced.

SHOTS END LIVES OF 2 PROFESSORS

(International News Service)
SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 2.—J. Herman Wharton, dean of the school of business administration of Syracuse University, was shot and instantly killed by Holme Beckwith, an instructor, and head of the eligibility committee of the same school, who then ended his own life with a bullet. The shooting occurred at 9:45 o'clock this morning in one of the private rooms of the school of business administration.
The theory advanced by Chancellor Day, of the Syracuse University and by Frank Malpath, district attorney, is that Beckwith was discovered by Wharton in the act of committing suicide and that Wharton interfered being shot in the struggle that followed.
Beckwith is said to have been unpopular with Syracuse University students and it is claimed a petition was being circulated in the student body asking that no reengagement contract be tendered him for next year.
ANNOUNCE DISCOVERY OF SEASICKNESS CURE
BRUSSELS, April 2.—Dr. Nolf, a professor at the University of Liege, announces that he has discovered an absolute cure for seasickness by the use of belladonna and atropine. Seasickness, according to the doctor, has its origin in a nerve in the interior ear which causes dizziness. The two drugs quiet the nerve and the funny feeling disappears.

REVERSE THE SIGNIFICANCE OF ALL FOOLS DAY

It has been seriously suggested in some quarters that April 1st, be made all Wisemen's day, in place of holding it indefinitely as "All Fool's Day," the main argument advanced being that quite enough days now belong to the "foolish ones," whereas not a single day of the year has been dedicated to the lovers of wisdom. It is pointed out also, that the happy-go-lucky, have not been content with the possession of April 1st as their day, but have captured many of the other special days, such as July 4th, Christmas day, and Thanksgiving also, by eating and drinking entirely too much on the last Thursday in November. It is also shown by the serious minded, that many wise men have entered the "prize ring," called the world, on April 1st. Perhaps the most common reason for claiming April 1st, as his birthday, being Dr. William Harvey, who discovered the truth and established it, that the human blood is in circulation throughout the body all the time, both day and night. Dr. Harvey was not only wise in learning and medicine, but also in worldly wisdom. This is proven by the fact that he knew enough to thwart and defeat the efforts of certain foolish people, who tried to kill him for telling the world about his great discovery.

It would be too much to expect the world to give up April 1st as it is now regarded, and change it to a day of thoughtfulness and care. The people on this old world do not "right about face" in such a way; that is unless they are under military command and are forced to do so.

The days of July 4th, Thanksgiving, and December 25, may be ultimately turned over to the "wise ones," but April 1st, never!

We love too well to describe mother Eve's grandmother to guileless friends; to send for five cents worth of dove's milk and to ask foolish questions, such as—who was the father of Zebulon's children? To say nothing of the thousands who were set on "Fool Errands" yesterday. Besides, if we believe it is a fact—that a little folly now and then is relished by the wisest men, after all we are not right in celebrating April 1st just as we do? Is it not the part of wisdom to let well enough alone as regards the significance of today?

NOVEMBER 11, 1921

President Harding has fixed on November 11 next, the anniversary of armistice day as the occasion for the ceremonies connected with the burial of the unknown American soldier at the Arlington National cemetery. This man will represent not merely the 1,600 American soldiers who have not been identified, but all of the 75,882 who gave their lives in the great war overseas.

With the president as chief mourner and every branch of the public life of the nation represented, there can be no doubt that the ceremonies will be the most impressive—no matter how simple they may be—that ever took place on that spot. For though there are over 2,000 unidentified soldiers of the Civil war sleeping in the big burial ground, these are individuals. On the other hand, the solitary figure will be conspicuous as a symbol and a reminder. Huntsville Telegram.

FOR GET THE ODOR AND EAT ONIONS IS PLEA TO PUBLIC

"Eat onions and help the onion growers" is the plea being made by the United States department of agriculture to the great eating public of the nation. Along about this time of the year when the tender little onions are available in gardens and in grocery stores the advice is unnecessary for a lot of people. For those who do not eat the highly perfumed fruit of the soil the plea of the agricultural department is labor wasted. The maiden who will be with friends in the evening, the youth who has a "date" with his girl, the matron at whose home the card club will meet and the man who must mingle with people during the day in an effort to add to his income, are all a bit wary about eating onions, for the breath perfumed with onions is not pleasant to meet.

However, if everyone were to eat onions no one would care about the odor, for the bite of the fruit is an antidote for its odor. And, besides, onions really are a fine food for spring consumption. They are healthful, they gratify a longing for something fresh and green, and often they stimulate the appetite for other food.

The Department of Agriculture marketing experts say:

"Eat onions" is sound medical advice. Onions are a valuable spring food. Just now the American housewife is paying 2 cents a pound for old onions at the grocery store, yet onions are selling for less than 1-2 cent a pound in producing districts, and at seven-tenth of a cent a pound wholesale.

"To be sure, the price to the consumer is already sufficiently high, but the price to the producer is too low. To help remedy the situation the Bureau of Markets suggests that retailers, the chain stores, and public markets throughout the country buy up some of the present surplus stocks and make onions a leader at a reasonable profit, so that farmers will be encouraged to grow onions another year and consumers to eat onions without suffering any financial setback. The Bureau of Markets suggests, too, that Produce Exchanges and Boards of Trade also lend their assistance, not only in this case, but whenever there is a great surplus of any food crop."

According to reliable estimates onion holding:

on March 25 totalled 2,500 cars. Shipments after April 1 in recent seasons have averaged 200 to 300 cars. The southern crop of new onions is two to four weeks earlier than usual and shipments of new onions are beginning to move. A production of early onions of about 7,000 cars is forecast for Louisiana, California and Texas.

It is evident that unless the usual light movement of onions in April and May is increased there will be great waste of unsold stocks of old onions, say Bureau of Markets officials. If the price to the grower is high enough to warrant shipments under present conditions probably 5,000 cars of the new stocks will move. Otherwise, not only will there be a large surplus of old onions but a surplus of new stock as well.—Anniston Star.

JAPAN SEEKS FRIENDSHIP

A peace conference of a new and interesting type was held at Tokio recently. Three hundred leaders of Japanese thought, including the statesmen in power, assembled and organized an "International Peace Association." The object seems to be purely national, in spite of the name. Reports of the conference indicate that the peace sought is not so much world peace as a peaceful and friendly attitude toward Japan on the part of the rest of the world.

The speakers dwelt particularly on the need of promoting happier relations between Japan and the United States and Japan and China. To this end it was determined to send representatives abroad. It seems to follow that the United States is to be subjected to a carefully prepared Japanese propaganda, calculated to convince Americans that the Japanese are an admirable and friendly people, from whom Americans have nothing to fear.

In a land that has been, and is still, propagandized so extensively as the United States, one such campaign more or less doesn't matter a great deal, provided it is conducted openly and honestly. The promoters of this movement seem to have such a method in mind, for Prince Tokugawa told his associates at Tokio that Japanese diplomacy must be based on "truthfulness, frankness and straightforwardness."

That would help a great deal. Deeds, however, would be more effective than words, however straightforward the words might be. If Japan, for instance, would proceed to carry out immediately her promises for the restoration of Shantung to China, it would do more for Japan in China, American and elsewhere than all the fair words in the world.

Unquestionably Japan needs such friendship as she hopes to gain by this movement. Viscount Kato declared, at the conference, "All peoples have merits and faults, but we are judged by our faults alone." There is much truth in that statement. At this moment, Japan has probably not one real friend among the nations.—Tuscaloosa News.

When St. Paul said: "so fight I, not as one that beatech the air," it need not be taken for granted that the apostle was a prize fighter, and could deliver a solar plexus when ever he got ready.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

"Toil remitting lent its self to play" in all parts of Morgan County yesterday. And all because "the children," God bless them!, were to have an outing, played the contests, but mostly play. The spirit of good will and playfulness was so prevalent, that many, who were not on the contest lists, were seen playing and entertaining themselves on all sides. Little tiny men and women from Hartselle, from the far end of the county, from Pleasant Hill, from Trinity, and every where played with the local children as if Albany and Decatur were just one big front yard. If there is born among the thousands of children here Friday a poet like Goldsmith, and if he has a retentive memory, he may immortalize the doings of yesterday, in a song similar to that poem beginning: "Sweet Auburn, loveliest village of the plain, when toil remitting lent itself to play. And all the village train from labor free, led up their sports beneath the spreading tree. And sleights of art, and feats of strength went round, there were thy charms sweet village sports like these, with sweet succession, taught even toil to please!"

But our little visitors did not only play and make us happy. They preached righteousness to us. There is a poet who said there are sermons in trees in stones and in running brooks. Cannot we as well say, there are sermons in little children also, and that they preach them without fear or favor? There was hardly a child in the long line of march, who did not hold out a thought or admonition and advice.

The Hartselle boys said it in a joke as they marched in chains in front of their make-believe wives, that they were enslaved for life. But they told the truth, for true love is a kind of slavery. But does it hurt to be the slave of love? It would be out of place and ungracious, to ask the typical boys, who bore banners saying: "Bathe Often," if they willingly practiced what they preached. And it is always unkind and positively coarse, to tell those "to save themselves," who sincerely wish to help save others. Many little fellows, carried tooth brushes and told the guests of the parade, "to wash your teeth," who doubtless neglected their own teeth. But did we resent the preachments of the children? No, because we loved them. Love casteth our unjust criticism.

One other thought—Citizens of Morgan county, you wish your children to grow up, marry and find homes near you, but are you making sufficient arrangement ahead for them to find life-employment in their native county? Citizens of the Twin Cities, you wish your children to grow up and settle in this community, but are you co-operating, and working in such a way as to bring sufficient industries, to furnish them employment?

One other word: The Bible came true for a day at least, on yesterday as love cast out fear. The little children led us; they brought us one more day's journey toward the perfect day.

Wayward Girl Tells of Work of Salvation Army

Captain Abbott, corps officer of Salvation Army in Decatur and Albany, keeps in close touch with the county and city officials, and Judge Lowe of the Morgan County Court says that he is not afraid to trust the Salvation Army here in every respect. Captain Abbott visits the unfortunates in jail, encourages, prays with and helps those in prison.

At the Salvation Army Home on East Church street in Decatur is a girl who is a shining example of the wonderful power of loving kindness and of Jesus' love. She is Miss Vestal Bryan, and for the sake of helping others, and with shining eyes Friday morning she said, "yes, I was a pretty hardened sinner, but through the work of the Salvation Army in bringing me to the love of Jesus, I now am willing to tell others:

"My parents died when I was young, and although I was born in a good family, I fell in with bad company, and went with bad boys and girls and sunk to the depths of sin. Last November after I had been taken in charge by the authorities of Morgan County, there behind the barred doors of a prison cell, stubborn and rebellious against the world, then it was that the Salvation Army officer came to me with kind words, showing me the end of the road I was traveling and praying with me, told me of the love of Christ for everyone, then bless the name of Jesus, I was saved."

"When nothing else could melt my heart, I am so glad that the loving hands of the Salvation Army was reached out to me, and I have never since had any desire for the old sinful life, and I am determined to live right and later on after I have served my full probationary period, hope to be allowed to help the Salvation Army in reaching and rescuing others."

In all large penal institutions of the United States the Salvation Army works with the prisoners, encouraging them to try again when discharged. In the Rescue and Maternity Home of the Salvation Army at Birmingham girls and women are cared for and helped to useful occupations, and this Home is open to all of Alabama.

Copper as Money.

It is not so very long ago that copper was used in Sweden as the chief medium of exchange, and at times merchants had to take wheel barrows with them when they went to receive payment of considerable sums.

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed."

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui, so I told him he might get it. After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time."

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."

The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women.

Cardui is purely vegetable, and mild and gentle in its action. Cardui may be the very medicine you need if suffering with womanly troubles.

REBEL LEADER UP FOR COURT-MARTIAL

(International News Service)
MEXICO CITY, April 2.—With the arrest of General Charles Tejeda, former Carranzista, and the exposure of a revolutionary plot said to have been aimed at the Obregon Government by Tejeda and his followers, no further trouble from this element is anticipated, according to General Jesus Garcia, military commander of Mexico City. General Tejeda is now being tried by a military court.

Time Calculated by Moons.

Among the western Indians time is calculated by moons instead of months. January is called "the Hard Moon," February "the Raccoon Moon," March "Sere-Eye Moon," April "the Moon in Which Goese Lay Eggs," May "the Planting Moon," June "the Moon When the Strawberries Are Red," July "the Moon When the Choke Berries Are Ripe," August "the Harvest Moon," September "the Moon When Rice is Laid Up to Dry," October "the Rice Drying Moon," and December "the Deer Moon."

Surgeon's Job.

Collectors of customs, being constantly on the watch for smugglers, have certain demands which they repeat almost unconsciously. Not long ago a tourist came ashore with a badly swollen cheek. "What have you there?" asked the custom officer, pointing to the swelling. "An abscess, sir," was the reply. "Well," said the officer impatiently, "open it, please."

ORIGINAL POEM DELIGHTS

MEMBERS OF CITY CLUB

Members of the City Club enjoyed an unusual treat yesterday noon when Mrs. George David Webb read an original poem entitled "Sambo in Chicago." The poem concerns a Memphis negro who wandered north in search of high wages and now wants to return to "good ole Memphis, Tennessee." It follows:

SAMBO IN CHICAGO

De days am dark and sad and dreary.
Dis northland sho a m bleak and cold.
Ma heart feels lonesome-like and weary—
Like a lamb what's lost from out de fold.

If I was just back down in Dixie
In de land o' cotton where I used to be.
Just once more back in Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

White folks, I was bawn in Memphis,
And done live dere all my life.
Dat's whar I bu'ied my mammy, and
Dat's whar I mah'ied my wife.

I got friends dere by de dozen,
White and black, to stan' by me;
It I could make it back to Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

I heered dem nigger strangers talkin'
'Bout de wages I could get
If I'd go up north, long wid 'em,
So like a fish I up and bit.

How long 'go wuz it, nigger?
Lawsey massy, lemme see—
Marse Ed Crump wuz mayor o' Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

Course sometimes I gits a letter,
Tellin' me de latest news,
An' one fool nigger up and writ me;
'Memphis folks done cut de booze.'

Course I know he's tryin' to string me,
But I got sense enough to see
Dat such as dat don't go in Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

I wish dem niggers down on Beale Street
Could just haf know'd de fix I'm in,
Dey'd just git up one mo' crap game
And up and sen' me what dey win;

Enough to buy a one-way ticket,
Dat's just all 'twould take fer me
Jest ter git me back to Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

I can hear dem niggers strummin'
On de banjo soft and low,
An' a comin' down de river
I can hear Kate Adams blow.

She's due now at de landin'
An' I'm blue as I can be—
'Cause I too am due in Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

When I goes to church on Sundays
An' hear de preaching' and de songs,
I ax de Lord fer jes' one thing—
To git me back whar I belongs.

An' when Gabriel toots his trumpet,
An' de las' day dawns fer me
Jes' ter let me die in Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

An' when I gits to heaven,
An' we're passin' down de line
To view dem glory mansions,
All made of stuffs dat shine,

I'm gwiner tell ma Master
Dat de dey ain't no place fer me
He can send me back to Memphis,
Good ole Memphis, Tennessee.

CHARITY BALL

AT LYONS LAST NIGHT

The affair was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bullard, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Echols and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Driskill. Grand march was led by Mrs. Driskill, president of the Auction Club and Mrs. H. M. Burt, Mrs. J. L. Robinson, and Mr. Ford of Huntsville. A special six-piece orchestra played and dancing began promptly at 10 o'clock, continuing until 1:30 p. m. A goodly sum was realized from the sale of tickets which will go to the relief fund of Starving Europeans.

THE PRESS TRIUMPHANT

Behold the village crier that once a week
Quavered stale news—to what dimensions grown!
This gaint buglar, with distended cheek,
That hath for breath the four winds as his own.

"The Press"—a hand-bill once, a lonely sheet
Sold by some starveling scribbler; so began
This parliament in which all nations meet,
This omnipresent eye of man on man.

Such might was in the seed by Caxton sown,
The scepter and the sword alike bend down
Before his printing-press—the People's Throne.
The axe of evil, and of fame the crown.

HIGHEST NOTE IN MUSIC SUNG BY 14-YEAR-OLD DENVER GIRL

By MICHAEL F. DACEY,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

DENVER, April 2.—That a potential prima donna and grand opera star has been discovered here in pretty fourteen-year-old Lou Milton is the belief of several prominent Denver musical tutors who have had the young prodigy under observation.

The girl has amazed professional teachers who have listened to her remarkable voice recently. It is declared that she is known to have pitched her voice to the second "f" above "high c"—the highest note ever recorded by a human vocal chord.

The highest previously recorded note was that attained last fall by twelve-year-old Robert Murray, of Tacoma, Wash., who sang before Metropolitan Opera stars in New York and reached the note "c" one octave above "high c."

The note achieved by the sparkling Denver miss is one-half an octave above that sounded by the Tacoma boy, and a full octave above the range climax of Mabel Garrison, who is said to have the highest range of any living prima donna. Little Miss Milton's voice is declared to possess a continuous range of four octaves.

Among those attending the funeral of Mr. Robert Orr, at Herring Cemetery were: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams and son Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. T. Mitchell and daughter Ivy and John Herndon.

Mrs. W. H. Aycock has returned from a weeks visit with her daughter Misses Helen and Hettie Aycock, who are attending school at Brenan College at Gainesville, Ga.

Mrs. J. D. Jervis returned from Chicago on Thursday.

Mrs. R. M. McElathery leaves for Washington, D. C., tonight to visit her sister, Mrs. J. Gill.

Misses Lois and Gladys Barnes, are spending a few days with friends in Birmingham.

W. J. Baker of Gandy's Cave was in the city today.

R. E. Graves returned last night from Hot Springs and reports C. O. Flippin is improving steadily.

BIRTH
Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Handy, April 2nd, a boy, Virgil Carlton.

Her winsome manners and eager willingness to participate in school entertainments have won her much popularity, and teachers at the school predict a successful career in the realm of music for the dainty miss.

MILLIONAIRE BUYS CATALINA;
TO MAKE IT SPORTING CENTER

Chicagoan Had All Money Could Buy, But Wanted an Island Empire, So He Bought California's Honeymoon Land

By CHARLES E. HUGHES.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

AVALON, CATALINA ISLAND, CAL., April 2.—If fortune had been very kind to you and you had wads and wads of money, and stocks and bonds, and blocks and tracks of valuable real estate, scattered here and there, and you had, in fact, pretty much of everything that gold will buy to make you happy, would you yearn for something else?

William Wrigley, Jr., the Chicago multi-millionaire and sportsman, was just such a darling of fortune. Yet he wanted something more.

It was—

An island in the Pacific Ocean.

Not a little toy affair with a few houses, a boat landing, a few trees and containing some scattered acres; on the contrary, a small empire in itself, being twenty-five miles long, nine miles wide and containing 54,000 acres of some of the most picturesque mountainous scenery in the world.

Mr. Wrigley talked about his island of wonders, or rather Santa Catalina Island, to use its full name, in much the same matter of fact way that a proud suburbanite would tell of a new home he had but recently purchased.

"About two years ago I found that I could obtain Catalina island at an advantageous price," Mr. Wrigley said. "I was interested in a banking deal what seemed to be a reasonable figure. I took the owners up on their offer and a few millions of dollars changed hands. I didn't get to inspect my property for six weeks, but I knew that I had not bought a pig in a poke. I was delighted with my buy and have been more and more pleased every day I am here to enjoy it."

"When I have completed a long list of improvements and have the island laid out according to plans that will take several years for their execution, I expect to make it a playground for the West. It will become a Riviera of the Pacific, but it will be distinctly an American Riviera catering to Americans desiring American amusements."

Last year the payroll of the island's hotels, boarding houses, camp, fishing enterprises, furniture factory and amusement concessions was $980,000. The island's population at the height of the Summer season was 12,000. Quite a hefty business proposition involved in Catalina."

COTTON MARKET IS FAIRLY STEADY

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 2.—The cotton market opened fairly steady today at a decline of 8 to 20 points. Japanese and other foreign interests were the chief sellers on unfavorable British labor and textile news. Wall street concerns sold while Southern wire houses appeared to be the best buyers. Prices were irregular, in mediately after the opening, but on the whole the list showed a fairly steady tone and there was a tendency on the part of some of the shorts to cover over the week-end.

Josephus Daniels

Speaks in Alabama

The Birmingham District and Alabama, at large will hear two splendid speakers in connection with the preliminary work to the Christian Educational Campaign, which is to cover Methodism in all sections of the South. One of these speakers will be Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, who will devote two weeks toward the campaign, which is to raise $33,000,000 for Methodist educational purposes in the South. Just what dates he will speak in Birmingham and in other Alabama cities have not been determined.

The second speaker will be Bishop Warren A. Candler of Atlanta who will preach in Birmingham, twice on Sunday, May 22.

These nationally known speakers will tell of the needs of educational facilities in the country's denominational schools and will point out the dire need of ministers that are turned out by many of these schools.

NEWS OF HARTSELLE

That the schools of Morgan county have made some interesting history the present school year can be gleaned from the following: While the schools have been cut short one month from what it was hoped that they might run, still they are running as long as any preceding year, being full five months.

This does not apply to the schools that have the special three-mill tax, for with their tax money they can extend the schools as long as the money will carry them.

The commissioner's court has granted special tax elections in six new districts, and in each one the chances for carrying the elections are very flattering.

In most of these districts, if the tax carriers, they will build new houses.

In the Moulton Height district No. 6, lying immediately west of Decatur and Albany, an entire block of land has been given to the county superintendent for the state, and the blue print has been prepared for a beautiful school building. This most generous donation was made by Mrs. Geo. A. Nelson, and she and her husband will also assist in erecting the building, which will be a monument to their generosity, and will be as a fountain of pure water springing up in the lives of their neighbor children.

The Eva school, which was destroyed by cyclone, is being rebuilt by the insurance company, and is nearing completion. The state inspector is well pleased with the work, and says it will be as good as before the wreck.

Danville is preparing to establish a Junior high school and prospects are very bright for them.

Only four cases went to the courts in applying the compulsory school law this school year. It has been a very satisfactory year.

The Decatur District conference will convene with the Falkville church beginning next Tuesday and continuing for three days. A feature of this meeting will be the fact that Bishop James Cannon, of Birmingham, will be present and preach Tuesday night, and again Wednesday at the eleven o'clock service. A large attendance is looked for, and a large delegation will attend from here.

Over three hundred tickets were sold by the local ticket office yesterday to pupils of the two schools here attending the Field Day exercises at Albany. The students of the M. C. H. S. captured many of the prizes offered.

EDMOND CARTER CALLED BY DEATH

Edmond Carter, one of the Twin City's most widely known residents, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home, 702 Fifth avenue West. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence, conducted by Rev. W. P. Wilks, pastor of the Central Baptist church. Interment will be made here.

Mr. Carter was born in Decatur, had resided practically all of his life here and was employed in the Louisville and Nashville shops for 23 years. He had been ill but a short time and his death came as a distinct shock to his hundreds of friends in the Twin Cities. Deceased was one of those rare men rarely seen. Faithful, generous, kind, one of nature's noblemen.

He is survived by his wife, five sons: E. C. and Otto Carter, of Sheffield; Harry L. Carter, Paducah, Ky.; L. M. and E. N. Carter, of Albany; three daughters, Mrs. T. O. Lee, Mrs. W. E. Dunnivant and Miss Eva Lee Carter, all of Albany.

The five sons and grandson, Milton Carter, of Sheffield will act as pallbearers.

BUILDING BOMBED

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, April 2.—More than 30 families fled into the streets and many windows in the vicinity were smashed early today when a four story building, owned by an Italian, was bombed. TO THE PATRONS OF THE WATER COMPANY:

The Alabama Public Service Commission has amended the Rules and Regulations of the Water Company relating to charges where more than one person or family is served by a single connection.

Section 9 of said Rules and Regulations is amended to read in the following language:

"No more than one single building or house, and no more than one single business, establishment, or family in a building or house, shall be supplied by a single service line, except as approved and ordered by the company; provided, however, that where two or more buildings or houses already constructed and are now supplied by a single service line, with the approval of the company, or where two or more families occupy one building, or where one building is occupied partly for business and in part by one or more families, then a single meter may be installed on the said single service line, but in such cases the contract for water shall be signed by the owner, or by one responsible tenant, and the said buildings or houses shall be considered as one building; provided, further that a minimum charge shall be paid for one meter.

In such cases, any violations of the rules of the company as to either or any of said buildings or houses, or as to any or either of said business or establishments, shall be deemed a violation as to all, and the company may take such action as to all as might properly be taken under the rules and regulations for a single building, house, business or establishment.

No such action involving the shutting off of the supply of an innocent building, house or establishment, however, shall be taken by the company without first affording the owner or a tenant of the premises an opportunity to make a new application for the supply of such building, house, business or establishment, through a separate service line and meter."

Section B, paragraph 22 is amended so as to read as follows: "No consumer will be allowed to furnish water to another person, except in cases of emergency, and then only for a limited time, or until such emergency shall have passed."

The owners of all property occupied by more than one family, or one responsible tenant, will be required to call at the Company's office and sign application for water service for himself, and other consumers in the building.

Are you waiting for rents to come down?

Are you one of the millions who are patiently paying rents that are from 20% to 50% too high?

If you are, do you know the facts?

Do you know that Albany, Ala. is short 300 homes; that experts estimate the United States to be four years behind in building requirements?

The law of supply and demand always fixes prices. So long as there is a home shortage, landlords will demand high rents and tenants will be forced to pay them.

This one way out is to become a home owner yourself. You can build now cheaper than at any time in the past five years, and almost as cheaply, we believe, as at any time in the next five years.

Lumber and building materials have taken a tremendous drop. The complete cessation of building has caught manufacturers with big stocks which they have been forced to sell almost at cost.

If you buy now you can take advantage of their situation. If you wait, you will buy when everyone else is buying, and you will find the increasing demand forcing prices upward.

In our opinion, right now is a good time to build.

You owe it to yourself to investigate thoroughly. Call and see us, or a letter or phone call will bring us to you at once.
